SOCIOLOGY

KNOWLEDGE

SKILLS

Year 11 Demonstrate strong

- ability to:
 accurately use key theorists to support high tariff questions
- appropriately use
- key concepts
 know and apply key texts to relevant questions
- and policy to support sociological arguments

The future

A levels: Sociology and other social sciences Degree: Sociology and other social sciences Careers: police and probation, local and central government, market research, charities and NGOs, journalism, media, teaching, counselling and social work

Revisit classic and contemporary research. Compare and evaluate research methods including qualitative and quantitative

Application of key texts and practice of exam questions including comparisons, judgements and evaluation for paper 1, paper 2 and use of methodology

Revision and exam practice

Research into the layers of Society in relation to wealth, class and power, role allocation and life chances. Distinguish between key Sociological perspectives of class including Marx and Weber

Social stratification

Final exam preparations, recall of knowledge and application

Examine different types of schools and factors that impact achievement of different social groups. Distinguish between different theoretical perspectives of Education

Explore Sociological explanations for crime and deviance. Debates about criminals, prison, and punishment. Distinguish between different theoretical perspectives

Sociology of Education

Crime and deviance

Examine family forms, diversity, conjugal roles, divorce and alternatives to family. Distinguish between different theoretical perspectives of the family

Sociology of the Family sound ability to: - recognise issues

Begin to develop a

- sociological perspectives
- evaluate sociological issues objectively
- sociological theories

Distinguish between Sociological approaches: Marxism, Functionalism, Feminism, interactionism and New Right

Social construction of society, exploring research, current affairs and the role of the media

The sociological approach

Social structure, processes and issues

Introduction of key Sociological concepts - nature and nurture, structure and agency, conflict and consensus

Begin to recognise sociological issues within families, education, criminal justice and socio-economic class

Introduction to Sociology